This page is a connect-the-dots style illustration with numbered points.

There are multiple right answers for the questions:

1 Which of these people are real (not computer generated)?

The 'fake' images have been created by artificial intelligence software as part the project thispersondoesnotexist.com.

A   B   C   D

2 Which of the following headlines are true?

A   "A face-scanning algorithm increasingly decides whether you deserve the job."

B   "Facial recognition technology to crack down on exam cheating."

C   "Refugees in Jordan are buying groceries with eye scans."

D   "Amazon's facial recognition software mistakes 28 congressmen for criminals."

3 Which biometric technologies are already in development or in use?

A   Ear Acoustic Authentication
The identification of someone based on the internal shape and structure of their ear.

B   Finger Vein Recognition
Vein pattern recognition in the human finger with the use of infrared rays.

C   Belly Button Recognition
The identification of a person based on the unique characteristics of their belly button.

D   Body Odor Recognition
A form of identification based on the amino acids in sweat.

4 Which activities can lower a citizen's social credit score in China?

A   Not visiting your parents on a frequent basis

B   Eating in a park

C   Walking a dog without putting it on a leash

D   Cheating in online video games

China's social credit score system rewards or punishes citizens based on their "good" or "bad" behaviour.

TACTICAL TECH